We've decided not to open the servery after church for the time being, but would very much encourage everyone to socialize safely after the service – outdoors if possible. So do please bring your own coffee if you wish, and we'll try to provide some cartons of fruit juice as well.

Sue Stearn has spent lock down very productively making little bead crosses! She would be very happy for you to choose one for yourself and for anyone you think might like one. They are displayed on a table at the back of church 100 Club Subscriptions for the months August 2020 to end January 2021 are now due, please. Cheques (to St Andrew's PCC) for £30 (or cash) to Jenny Norris or Margaret Harrison.

Prize Draw for August will be made on Weds 12 August; "Be in it to win it" - new members welcome—see Margaret Harrison or Jenny Norris

PCC MEETING IN CHURCH @ 4 PM on TUES 25TH AUG: If PCC members feel they would rather not attend, written contribution to any Agenda item can be sent to Daphne Jefferies: daphnejefferies657@btinternet.com

Re: Face Coverings in Church : copy of email from Rod has been sent out separately; copy available at back of church

Church Annual Report booklet available for collection at the back of church..

Sunday Worship in Church There will be two Sunday morning services 9 am & 10.30 am to address the needs of people in different situations in our congregation. Mostly everyone will have received Rod's communication, either in the Parish Herald, or the St A Webpage, or on this pewsheet.

9 am Service: This will be a said service for folk who feel in any way more vulnerable. It will be along the lines of our usual 8 o'clock, but it will take place in the nave with well-spaced chairs. The later time is in order to include people who don't find it easy to rise early but are cautious about being away from home at present. Following the vote last Sunday, we will alternate between traditional and contemporary language.

10.30 am Service: This will be appropriate for those who are already out and about more, or are at work, and feel comfortable with singing (if this is possible) and being with families. We will of course still be gathered in a safe way. It will be at 10.30 to allow for cleaning of chairs between times.

Reading: Galatians 4. 4-7

Gospel: St Luke 1. 46-55

HYMNS: 438; 182; 411; 248; 631

From Psalm 97

The Lord is king: let the earth rejoice;
let the multitude of the isles be glad.
Clouds and darkness are round about him;
righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
The heavens declared his righteousness,
and all the peoples have seen his glory.
For you, Lord, are most high over all the earth;
you are exalted far above all gods.
The Lord loves those who hate evil;
he preserves the lives of his faithful and delivers them from the hand of the wicked.
Light has sprung up for the righteous and joy for the true of heart.
Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous,
and give thanks to his holy name.

9th AUGUST TRINITY 9 : The Transfiguration (Year A)

Collect

Father in heaven, whose Son Jesus Christ was wonderfully transfigured before chosen witnesses upon the holy mountain, give us strength so to hear his voice and bear our cross that in the world to come we may see him as he is; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

Holy God, we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ: may we who are partakers at his table reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Reading: 2 Peter 1. 16-19

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. ¹⁷For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, 'This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom

I am well pleased.' ¹⁸We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain. ¹⁹So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

Gospel: St Luke 9. 28b-36

Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for

Elijah'—not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!' When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.
