Collect

Heavenly Lord, you long for the world's salvation: stir us from apathy, restrain us from excess and revive in us new hope that all creation will one day be healed in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Post Communion

Gracious Lord, in this holy sacrament you give substance to our hope: bring us at the last to that fullness of life for which we long; through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Reading: Isaiah 58. 6-11

Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? ⁷ Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? ⁸ Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the LORD shall be your rearguard. ⁹ Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am. If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, ¹⁰ if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. ¹¹ The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail.

Psalm 31 vs. 1-8

In you, O Lord, have I taken refuge: Let me never be put to shame Deliver me in your righteousness.

*Incline your ear to me; make haste to deliver me.
Be my strong rock, a fortress to save me,
For you are my rock and my stronghold*

*Guide me, and lead me for your name's sake.
Take me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me;
For you are my strength.*

*Into your hands I commend my spirit,
For you have redeemed me, O Lord God of trust.*

*I hate those who cling to worthless idols;
I put my trust in the Lord.*

*I will be glad and rejoice in your mercy
For you have seen my affliction and known my soul in adversity.
You have not shut me up in the hand of the enemy;
You have set my feet in an open place*

Gospel: St Mark 12. 28-31

One of the scribes came near and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, he asked him, 'Which commandment is the first of all?' Jesus answered, 'The first is, "Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength." The second is this, "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." There is no other commandment greater than these.'
